NUUO Announces Partnership with Securitas

NUUO announces partnership with Securitas, the leading Finnish security services company to provide comprehensive and affordable solution for their SMB customers. The partnership has chosen NVRsolo as the main solution. NVRsolo is NUUO's Linux-embedded standalone solution boasting high quality local display through HDMI or VGA interface. It also features easy network connection setup and simple remote access options, making this the prime choice for Securitas to offer to their customers.
